

Cease and Desist Affidavit and Assurance of Voluntary Compliance

Comes the Affiant, Shane Thompson, after being duly sworn, states:

1. I have read the correspondence dated December 6, 2010, from the Office of the Attorney General regarding my use of the word "psychologist."
2. I am not credentialed by the Kentucky Board of Examiners of Psychology as a psychologist. I hold a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from the University of Louisville.
3. I understand and agree as my assurance of voluntary compliance under KRS 319.082(1) that I may not, and my agents or representatives may not, use the term "psychologist," "psychology," "psychological," or any term specified in KRS 319.005 or any title or description of services in a manner that implies or would reasonably be deemed to imply that I am licensed in Kentucky as a psychologist.

Further Affiant sayeth naught.

Subscribed and sworn by Shane Thompson before me, this the 30th day of December, 2010.

Shane Thompson
